MESSAGE TO THE
UNITED NATIONS/RANAN LURIE
POLITICAL CARTOON AWARDS

New York, 1 December 2011

By bringing together distinguished individuals from the worlds of diplomacy and culture, this gathering expresses the spirit of political cartoons, which bridge both realms.

I thank the judges who have brought their collective wisdom and experience to the complex process of evaluating cartoons from five different continents.

Above all, I am grateful to the organizers for generating awareness about the United Nations among a wide popular audience.

I offer my warmest congratulations to each of the winners of this year's Awards, and my best wishes to you all.

- Second prize, of US$5,000.00 and a plaque.
- Third prize, of US$3,000.00 and a plaque.
- Ten (10) honorable mentions, in the form of plaques, all granted by the

THE UNITED NATIONS/RANAN LURIE

Political Cartoon Awards committee

All winning entries will be announced via the worldwide press and on this website..

All winners' prizes, either financial and/or plaques, will be sent via U.S. registered mail on December 15, 2014, to the winners.

Rules for Exhibits:

1. Entries must be submitted in writing and addressed to

THE UNITED NATIONS/RANAN LURIE
POLITICAL CARTOON AWARDS

25 Columbus Circle, Suite 63E
New York, NY 10019

(No phone or fax calls or Emails, please). Entries for awards must be received on or before November 15, 2014, and represent work done from the beginning of September 2013, to the 15th of October 2014, reflecting the importance of human dignity, mutual respect and friendship among nations, as well as economic consideration and environmental responsibilities towards each other. While cartoonists may send in what ever they please, the contest does not encourage maligning member nations or their leaders.

Winning cartoons will be chosen for their high professional standards in art, political analysis of events, projection of events to come, humor, while also reflecting the spirit and principles of the U.N.

2. Entries for these awards may be made by any professional individual, and should consist of political cartoons printed in any publication published anywhere, in any language. The entry must consist of reproductions only. The cartoon reproductions will be accepted only as published, with name of publication, language, and date included, accompanied by a newspaper reprint, and translated into English. Exhibits are limited to two cartoons per person. Reproductions must be presented measuring no larger than 8 1/2 x 11 inches. Envelopes larger than 9 x 13 inches will not be opened.

THE COMMITTEE

requires that every entry conform to the stated limits and size before it can be given any jury consideration. All exhibits should include no more than a 75 word biography, a picture of the entrant, and be in English or translated into English.

3. All materials including prize-winning exhibits become the property of
