

Julia Platonova – Russia

Born in 1977 in Novomoskovsk, Tula region.

In his early childhood, she began to take an interest in drawing, so his parents sent her to art school. She later graduated with honors from art-graphic faculty of the Moscow State Pedagogical University. She continued correspondence course in graduate school at the Department of Drawing.

From 2000 to 2001. worked at the art school from 2001 to 2009 she taught at Tobolsk State Pedagogical Institute. DI Mendeleev. And three years she worked as chief designer in an advertising magazine of Tobolsk. Now Julia has been designing furniture. In 2012, at the request of friends and acquaintances she began writing cartoons. And for nearly 20 years created the images with pastels on colored paper. Each cartoon Julia conveys not only the similarities but also human passions: Pharmacist - gardener, sailor, plumber, administrator, player, fisherman, realtor, dancer, and so on.

